Thinking Out Loud

By H. M. L.

There are four candidates for Representative of the Second Congressional District, two Republicans and two Democrats. The political pot boils under a warm summer sun. Three of the candidates must spend money and rubber in their campaigns. The fourth may, or may not, depending on conditions as they develope.

These conditions involve every Congressman, in Senate or House, up for re-election. Already the Democrats in the House are trying for a breakaway from congressional duties by July 20, in order to come home to reassure and reinvigorate tehir discontented constituents. And here is posed a nice question for every Congressman to answer. Will he gain most by staying on the job in this war year, or by leaving his job in order to save it? We don't pretent to know the answer. If a sentry leaves his post in wartime, without the permission of his superior officers, the penalty is very severe. The superior officers of these men in Congress are "we the people." If they come home for the sole purpose of being re-elected, we may keep them home. They guessed very badly about the reaction of their superior officers when they voted themselves pensions. They were able, and speedily, to repeal that enactment, but they cannot repeal their negligence if they desert their post in Washington to come home merely to insure that they get another lease on the job.

We note in Harry L. Englebright's anuouncement that he states that he has voted for all war measures. That is true if one looks only to his record since December 8, 1941. Before that date he and others of the Republican minority voted against repealing the arms embargo, relaxing the neutrality law, renewing the Hull trade pacts, the lend-lease bill, extending the draft law, arming our merchant ships against the murderous German submarines, and reopening the combat zones. Now as a matter of fact, were it not for the Pearl Harbor attack and declarations of war, a good many Republicans and not a few Democrats would still consider that Englebright and fellow Republicans had voted wisely. But war changed our minds and now a great many citizens whose hindsight is much better than their foresight, think we need new faces in congressional halls.

There is a justification for that attitude. We expect our Congressmen to know more about the real situation in foreign affairs than we do, and in time of war or world-wide crisis, certainly we do not expect them to play politics to the detriment of our country. That is the severest indictment we can bring against the Republicans under the Joe Martin leadership. If Englebright pleads that he had to vote as he did in order to retain his post of Republican whip in the house, then his constituents can say they did not hire him

Candidate For Congress

R. R. Henderson

INYO REPUBLICAN HOPES TO DEFEAT H. L. ENGLEBRIGHT

(C. N. P. A., Inc. Service)

R. R. Henderson, building materials dealer of Lone Pine, announces elsewhere in this issue his candidacy for Congressman subject to the will of both the Republican and Democratic voters of the Second District.

Operating a successful business in Lone Pine for 15 years, Henderson states that in times like these when others are sacrificing their jobs, their professions and their businesses, he feels that it is up to him to forget his.

He has also served several years in editing weekly newspapers, and has been a railroad man for four years.

Henderson is married and the father of three sons.

As a business man, Henderson is for simplification in government as in business. The elimination of the overlapping and confusing multiplicity of governmental bureaucracies is essential to winning the war.

He further believes that since the American people have displayed their eagerness to save and skimp to pay the gigantic cost of war, that it is the duty of congress to discontinue spending as usal for nonwar purposes. Henderson asserts that the present congress voted a net increase over the previous year of more than a billion dollars for ordinary nonwar agencies.

He is against the revocation of the second class mailing regulations now or at any future time. After 63 years of this type of postal service and its tremendous contribution in making the American people the most educated and enlightened in the world, he considers it smacks of vindictiveness on the part of congressional members to propose to revoke it because of a somewhat unfavorable press and for the further reason that it is another step in n indirect manner that will effect the "Freedom of the Press."

"If the voters of California District No. 2," Henderson says, "want a member of congress that will lead instead of follow, that will be guided by his own best judgment and conscience instead of by the demand of vocal minorities, I will welcome the opportunity to serve them.

"The formula for obtaining a better congress is simple, if not easy to accomplish; elect better congressmen. The congressman to be elected from this district must not only play a major part in winning the war but may also be among those who will be called to help to shape the peace, so all important to the prosperity of our country."

GARDEN CLUB TO SEE PICTURES

The Nevada City Garden Club will meet tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock in the social hall of the Methodist Church, where W. E. Wright, local attorney, will show pictures of various flowers and plant life he has taken in Hawaii, Holland and other countries.

Members are invited to bring guests.

Normalcy Returns After Successful Observance Of Independence Here

Nevada City returned to normalcy today following a weekend of celebrating the anniversary of the independence of this country.

Hundreds of former residents of the county returned to observe the July Fourth services here, which for the most part were solemn, dedicated to patriotism and a determination to keep alive the independence which has been enjoyed by the people of this nation since 1776.

It was the first war time Fourth of July in many years and much of the fanfare, gaiety and noise which marked peacetime celebrations was lacking.

However the celebration was highly successful and gratifying.

The fete started with patriotic exercises in an arena erected on Pine Street. While hundreds of persons lined the sidewalks on both sides of the street a block in each direction, a program of patriotic songs and an Independence Day address by James Snell, Nevada County attorney, was rendered. Cedric S. Porter acted as the master of ceremonies.

The big event on the Fourth was the parade. A crowd estimated at several thousand persons stood along the sidewalks of Broad Street to watch the parade, which included many floats, marching units and horses.

The parade was led by Thomas Lawrence, mounted on a beautiful horse. The grand marshall was followed by marching war veterans and the colors. The Nevada City High School band and majorettes turned out in full force and the martial music thrilled the parade spectators.

One of the most beautiful floats was that of the Goddess of Liberty, portrayed by Miss June Hawke of Gold Flat. The Miss America float, entered by the Nevada City Parent Teachers Association, was also attractive. Cleo O'Shea was in the role of Miss America. Beverly Bates, daughter of Councilman and Mrs. Al Bates, represented Miss California in a float entered by the Native Sons Lodge.

One of the features of the parade was the Nevada City Firemen's drum corps. Although the corps members had but a few nights practice they beat their drums like veterans. The parade would have lacked the essential beating of drums had it not been for the firemen.

Grass Valley was well represented in the parade. The Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce arranged for the appearance of the Grass Valley Municipal Band. Grass Valley city officils, ffremen, defense workers, civic and fraternal organizations participated. Bert Chegwidden and Harry Poole had charge of the Grass Valley division.

Sheriff Carl J. Tobiassen's mounted possee participated with the sheriff, who was in charge of the parade leading. The crowd generously donated to the Navy Relief. The Native Daughters of this city carried a large flag into which the donations were thrown. Frank Finnegan, chairman of the Nevada County Navy Relief committee, appealed for funds for the benefit of the children and widows of deceased United States sailors.

The huge Chinese flag carried by the Nevada County Chinese also was well lined with silver by the parade spectators. The Chinese division was led by a beautiful float.

After the parade the Grass Valley band played several numbers at the intersection of Broad and Pine Streets. Broad Street was roped off to prevent motor travel during the parade.

During Saturday afternoon sports events of all sorts were held. Fred Anderson was announced as the winner of the fishing contest.

The soap box derby was won by Melvin Dodge. Harvey Boyd was second. Lauren Moody third and Wayne Engle fourth.

The pickup sticks race was won by Walter Davis with Tommy Campbell second. The shoe race was won by Bill Campbell. Tom Campbell was second and Edwin Miller third.

The girl's shoe race was captured by Sarah Usrey. Mildred Gardner was second and Sena Crane third. The girl's running race was won by Mickey Morgan with Sarah Usrey second and Mildred Gardner third.

Eben Smart won the boy's race. Melvin Dodge was second and Tommy Campbell and Buddy Beyer tied for third.

The concessions at former Safeway Store building on Broad Street produced quite a sum of money for the benefit of the PSO, Navy Reilef, Red Cross and British War Relief.

GODDESS OF LIBERTY

June Hawke of Gold Flat, portrayed the Goddess of Liberty in Nevada City's Fourth of July parade. The Goddess of Liberty float was considered by many as the most beautiful in the parade.

Two Held For Beating Of Aged Man Last Night

Two men, Claude Prine, 36, and Preston Underwood, 29, both of the Grass Valley district, are held in the county jail here for the beating of John Turan, aged resident of the Union Hill district, last night.

The men were arrested by Captain Joseph Blake and Patrolman Carl Kitts of the California Highway Patrol. They are held on open charges pending the outcome of Turan's injuries. Turan is reported to be in a serious condition. He is in the Communit Hospital in Grass Valley.

The highway patrol officers stated Mrs. Adolph Parente, an eye witness to the beating, said the car in which Prine and Underwood were occupants blocked the driveway into the Turan residence and when the latter got out of his machine to ask them to móve the car a heated argument developed. Mrs. Parente said Prine and Underwood then began to beat Turan. Captain Blake and Kitts found a wooden mallet in the car of the two men when they arrested them but they did not know whether the weapon was used in the affray.

DR. FOSTER APPOINTED

Dr. George Foster, who had assisted Dr. W. W. Reed at the Nevada County Hospital, has been named by the board of supervisors to take Dr. Reed's place while the latter physician is on duty in the United States Army Medical Corps.

Sugar Bonus Available After July 10th

A sugar "bonus" of two pounds for every ration card holder, purchasable between July 10 and August 22 was announced by the OPA because of "somewhat heavier shipments" of sugar into this country than anticipated

In addition, institutional users will get 75 per cent of their normal sugr consumption for September and October instead of the present 50 per cent and industrial users will get 80 per cent instead of 70 per cent.

Householders may obtain the dividend allotment by presenting ration stamp No. 7 to the grocery store any time in the six weeks period. The bonus is in addition to the regular two pound monthly allotments.

Leaves For War Work—

Mrs. Frank Carson left Friday for Vallejo, where she entered training for war work. Mrs. Carson resided here about three years and has many friends. Her husband is employed at Pearl Harbor for the duration of the war.

Rubber Drive May Produce 600,000 Lbs.

A total of 600,000 pounds of rubber is expected from Nevada County by Chairman Wesley Donnenwirth before the drive comes to an end this week.

Donnenwirth announces 450,000 pounds has already been collected and approximately 35,000 pounds gathered in the southern end of Sierra County.

A drive is now underway to obtain every available automobile rubber mat. Many already have been turned in.

Nevada City and Grass Valley Rotary Clubs and the Grass Valley Lions Club have been assisting Donnenwirth's committee in the rubber campaign.

Donnenwirth said Nevada Countyans have been cooperating wholeheartedly in the drive but he believes with a little more effort at least 600,000 pounds can be obtained in this county before the ten day extension period proclaimed by President Roosevelt is up.

It's unpatriotic to keep the rubber tires which grace ash trays.

At least this is the attitude taken Carl J. Tobiassen and hns parade mittee, headed by Wes Donnenwirth and the miniature tires on the ash trays in the supervisors' room at the courthouse, the sheriff's office and other offices are doomed to go into the stockpile.

Supervisor Guerdon Ellis of the Tahoe National Forest lost no time in donating his ash tray tire to the cause.

MINERS DOWN OROVILLE NINE

The Grass Valley Miners subdued the Oroville Olives by a 7 to 1 score yesterday in Grass Valley in a Sacramento Valley League game. Archie Campbell pitched the victory for the Miners.

Ned Fusaro, who returned Friday from Pearl Harbor, starred at bat for the Miners in the Oroville game.

Saturday the Grass Valley team lost a 3 to 2 game to the Muir Athletic Club. Richie Wakefield, formerly of Nevada City, pitched the victory for the Muir Club.

The score:	R.	H.	E.
Grass Valley (Saturday)	2	5	2
Muir Club	3	7	2

Batteries: Hurley and King, Stassi; Wakefield and Reimer.

Grass Valley (Sunday)	7	10	1
Oroville	1	7	6

Batteries: Campbell and King; Andrews, Hooper and Ledford.

Visits Mother—

Miss Madeline Himes spent the weekend here visiting her mother. She enjoyed the Fourth celebration.

Caught in the Riffles

Captain Joseph Blake of the California Highway Patrol reported Nevada and Sierra Counties set an excellent record during the Fourth of July weekend in that not a single automobile accident occurred.

Captain Blake stated traffic was heavy due to the celebration in Nevada City but it was necessary to arrest only one person on a charge of reckless driving.

Motorists in general and also the highway patrolmen for their vigilance deserve the praise and commendation of the public for no accident record.

REMNANTS OF A NOW DEPARTED FOURTH—

Nevada City and Grass Valley displayed their patriotism and loyalty to the United States and her armed forces during the Fourth of July parade when they tossed a total of $270.31 into an American flag carried by the Native Daughters of this city. That sum will be Nevada County's contribution to the Navy Relief, a benefit organization caring for the wives and orphans of U. S. sailors.

Frank Finnegan, chairman of the Navy Relief Committee in this county, is overoyed at the response to his appeals for the benefit.

The Chinese of Nevada County carried a large Chinese flag in which to toss money and derived a total of $145. This amount was turned over to H. Ward Sheldon for the United Service Organizations.

Sheldon revealed today appoximately $140 was obtained from the concessions operated during the Fourth for the benefit of the USO, Navy Relief, Red Cross and British War Relief.

Did you know that for 20 years now Elza Kilroy has taken a leading part in the staging of Fourth of July celebrations in Nevada City and Grass Valley?

Well, it's the truth and this year was no exception. Elza supervised work on three floats in this year's Fourth parade.

And, speaking of hard workers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kemper should not be forgotten. In a very large measure the success of the celebration is due to Mr. and Mrs. Kemper. It's been many a day since Nevada City has had such an enthusiastic pair of workers for civic and charitable enterprises.

Congratulations, too, to Sheriff Carl J. Tobiassen and his parade lieutenants, especially Bert Chegwidden and Harry Poole of Grass Valley. The latter two stirred up entusiasm for the pprade in Grass Valley.

Whoever concocted the idea of benches along the sidewalks certainly received the blessing of many a weary soul. And everyone thinks it is a good idea and something should be done to have benches established permanently at various places in the business district.

That's a good project for the Chamber of Commerce and local businessmen. Many expressed the belief they would come to town more often if they had an opportunity to sit down and rest their feet once in a while. Then, too, there is the social angle. People like to visit but certainly they don't want to stand up an hour or two on a street corner chatting. A few benches would aid socially in Nevada City.

The guy in the lion outfit on the Grass Valley Lions Club float was Moe Kinsman. June Hawke made an attractive Goddess of Liberty and Cleo O'Shea was certainly outstanding as Miss America. Beverly Bates is always beautiful but her gold gown, accentuated with sparkling popcorn nuggets dded to attractiveness in the Native Sons float . . . The auxiliary highway patrol, which Harrison Randall and Irving Long of Nevada City are members, were given a chance to display their learning. They handled traffic very nicely. The auxiliary patrolmen attended school for several weeks . . .

MORATORIUM ON DEBTS
(And on Unnecessary Taxes?)

The war budget for the fiscal year 1942-43 amounts to $77,000,000,000.

Existing taxes will realize $17,000,000,000.

ADDITIONAL taxes, exceeding $6,000,000,000, must be levied.

Those enormous figures benumb the lay imagination. But their impact upon the average man's life becomes grimly realistic when no less an authority than Randolph E. Paul, tax advisor to the U. S. Treasury, warns that a moratorium on private debts may become necessary so taxpayers may meet new income taxes. Paul reported to Congress last week.

Many individuals are finding it difficult, if not impossible, to continue amortizinz the mortgages on their homes, or to maintain premium payments on life insurance and endowment contracts, or perhaps even payments on instalment purchases of automobiles, refrigerators, etc. The hardships resulting from the imposition of heavy income taxes on persons with commitments to repay debts present a difficult problem. The problem—could be dealt with from a wider point of view by some sort of more or less general moratorium on debt payments, at least for home owners."

Those irrefutable tax figures, and Paul's expert opinion, confirm the judgment and foresight of California citizens who have placed upon our November ballot the initiative for repeal of the California State income tax. The state treasury doesn't need income tax revenues, now that it is war-rich and on a cash basis. The state can only pile up unneeded tax revenues as surplus, or spend such revenues on non-essentials. while patriotic taxpayers vaily find it more difficult to meet Uncle Sam's very real and urgent war needs for money. Whether or not it shall become necessary to declare a national moratorium on some forms of private debt. it is unquestionably necessary that Californians declare a moratorium on that galling, superfluous state income tax by voting it out of existence next November 3.

NO COMPROMISE

It is refreshing to have in Earl Warren a candidate for governor who is honest with the people and who stands on principle. We have a governor now who owes his election largely to the ham and eggers. Culbert Olson dealt with their leaders; he encouraged them to think that he was on their side and would further their scheme. After their followers had voted for him, and elected him, he double-crossed them, so to say. It would be a reflection on Governor Olson's intellect to say that he did not know the ham and egg chimera, if it carried, would be ruinous to California. He is smarter than that. In any event, neither his deal with them nor the runout powder he took afterward was the act of a man of principle.

Attorney General Warren is for an adequate, prideful pension system for everyone, for the continual improvement of California's present system to the limit of the ability of the people, and for a competent national system. He faces this issue as every other, with complete integrity and candor.

We need in every sphere of political life men who will not compromise their principles, who will view their jobs in the light of honest service to the people—we believe the time has come when the people are ready to turn to a man who is as honest as he is able and will elect Earl Warren this fall.—S. F. Chronicle.

ARE YOU A GOOD CITIZEN?

California's registration of voters is at a level far below that of two years ago. San Francisco's registration is down 10 per cent. Los Angeles has dropped 13 per cent. San Diego 13.4 per cent, Sacramento 13 per cent, Marin County 13.2 per cent, Contra Costa County, 4.4 per cent. That is a bad record for California. This is an important general election year, and in a few days—July 16 — the books close for the August primary. Good citizens who read this, and who have neglected to register, will mark that date—and get their names down ahead of the deadline.

THE WRATH TO COME

News in Rhyme Over KJBS daily at 12:30

Written by Harley M. Leete, Jr.

Herr Hitler plays with dynamite,
As Europe seethes and boils.
Though the Continent is ruled by fright,
Its rebellious water roils.

Here a German major's shot,
There a traitor's killed.
Every Nazi's on the spot;
His world with hate is filled.

They've mixed themselves a bitter broth,
They're like a grim, bewildered moth,
That flies but does not think.

Europe's burning, wrathful flame,
Is shot with suicide.
Though conquered folk seem very tame,
The Huns uneasy ride.

The Dutch have not forgotten yet,
The Poles still watch and wait;
The Cvechs are merely getting set—
All hand in hand with fate!

Herr Hitler takes much stock in the stars.
Perhaps the answer's there.
It seems there is a blot on Mars,
That warns him to beware.

Hostage blood, now flowing free,
Headmen's axes flashing,
Driven by butchers on a spree,
Will change on Germany's thrashing.

The conquered nation's feel each blow—
Appjarently are cowed;
About their daily business go—
Are bloody but unbowed.

Just now the fuse is being set,
The dynamite is ready,
The conquered folk will pay their debt.
Their nerve is calm and steady.

What pandemonium then shall reign,
When Huns are beaten down.
When liberty sings its refrain,
And peace receives the crown!

THINKING OUT LOUD

to be a Republican whip. They hired him to do a bang-up job as representative, first of the U. S., and, second, of his district.

As a Republican, Englebright is opposed by R. R Henderson, a lumberman of Lone Pine, Inyo County. There is evidence that he proposes to run as an independent Republican.. Henderson says he is one hundred per cent for full-out war effort, more business sense in Washington, and more economy everywhere. He is one hundred per cent against political time serving, pensions for congressmen, and dodging issues, Republican and Democrat alike can suscribe to those principles. It is quite possible he will grab off the Republican nomination.

This is not a year for political shenanigans. We are all fed up with politics as usual and we think that party lines will be not drawn closely. We have the greatest war in history to win. After that our representatives in Congress must organize a peace system, and, this time, make it stick. This is no time for small, niggling politics and baby kissing; no time for bacon bringers. Incidentally, for many years now we have paid too high a price for bacon. We must break the greasy bacon shackles and get rid of bacon bringers before the U. S. is bankrupt. We need men in congress who will stand up and be counted on issues vital to the four freedoms, rather than salesmen trading bacon.

On the Democratic side is Frank Finnegan, who, we believe would like to be an independent Democrat. but does not care to risk the displeasure of the Olson controlled state democratic committee. As matters stand today we think his chance of gaining the Democratic nomination in August is extremely good. All four candidates are trying for it and we expect Finnegan will win it. He is the first Democratic candidate of outstanding character and ability who has raised his head in these mountains in many a year.

And, ah yes, there is a lady in the race. A Democratic lady who has thrown her bonnet into the ring. She is Mrs Clark of Sutter Creek, Amador County, There is a feminine vacancy in the House of Representatives caused by the discreet refusal of Miss Jean Rankin to run again. A man will take her place. Mrs. Clark proposes to take Harry Englebright's seat in the California delegation. Well, in this case, woman proposes, but the voter disposes. We doubt if there is anything in the record of women in Congress that would warrant the electorate giving Mrs. Clark more than a kind look.

We need a he-man in Congress to represent a district of tall mountains 500 miles long. We need an independent man, one who does not take program from his party, who does his own thinking and voting and, most important, one who can see over the Sierras into a sick world that looks for courage and leadership to the greatest and most powerful democracy of all time. That is the kind of Congressmen we need and need desperately.

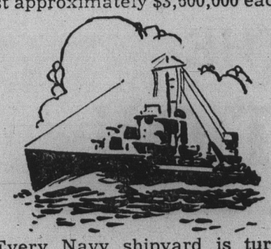
What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Ships of the Destroyer type comprise the bulk of our fighting ships in the American Navy. Their average displacement is about 1800 tons, and they are fast, powerful, and hard hitting. They have been particularly effective in convoy duty and gave a good account of themselves in the Coral Sea engagement. They cost approximately $3,600,000 each.



Every Navy shipyard is turning out Destroyers in record time. They are essential for our two-ocean Navy. Purchase of more and more War Bonds will assure all-out production of these vital units for the Navy. Buy every pay day. If everybody invests at least ten percent of his income in War Bonds we can do the job. U. S. Treasury Department

Tahoe Forest Personnel Actively Engaged In Collecting Old Rubber

Rubber salvage on the Big Bend district of the Tahoe National Forest is progressing well, according to District Ranger John R. Hodgson. Under the supervision of Fire Control Assistant James Wheeler, all fire guards are gathering old tires, tubes, etc., on trips cleaning up "smoke hue" stations, posting signs, and while getting mountain cabins cleaned around to reduce fire hazards.

"Competition is keen" Hodgson says. Fishermen have been seen lately taking home old tires found on the back country roads, obviously to add to the home town stock pile. One party took two old tires and one fish from a hole in the South Yuba. A stock pile at the Big Bend ranger station is growing daily and while it will take time to claen up this section of mountains, Wheeler feels that a thorough job will be done by fall. Any fishermen wishing to leave old rubber at the ranger station may do so, or if no transporiation is available, fishermen are asked to leave rubber items they may find on the edges of any mountain road and Uncle Sam's rangers will collect it on their first trip.

MAJOR WALLACE ADDRESSES LOCAL ROTARY CLUB

The Nevada City Rotary Club, at its meeting in the National Hotel here Thursday noon, heard Major Gerald Wallace, commander of cadets at Placer Union High School and instructor in military tactics at Placer Junior College, outline plans for the California National Guard and the state militia, in which he holds commissions.

Major Wallace, who is an expert on firearms and is associate editor of the Pacific Sportsman as well as president of the Western Sportsmen's Association, was accompanied to Nevada City by H. E. Catlin, Placer County Farm Advisor, who demonstrted approved methods of handling various kinds of rifles, pistols and shot guns. Much interest was shown in the military positions of firing prone, sitting, kneeling and standing.

Wallace outlined the organization of the militia, in which 18,000 are already enrolled. Men and boys from 16 and 65 are eligible to join. They will be called into active service only in case of invastion and then will go on duty in their own home counties.

The major expressed the view that the Home Guards in England, after which the militia is patterned, have prevented invastion of the British Isles, as the enemy knows how thoroughly they are prepared.

LOCAL TEACHER'S SKETCHES ARE ON EXHIBITION

Madge Harding, Nevada County schoolteacher, has a group of children's sketches on exhibition in Sacramento at Crocker Art Gallery.

The sketches are in black and white and in color. Pictures of two of the sketches were in The Sacramento Union yesterday. A picture was also run by The Sacramento Bee in its Saturday issue.

The Sacramento Union art critic praises the local artist's work as follows:

"She paints exquisite and imaginative characters that will delight children and grownups alike. Her feeling for color which expresses moods, her flair for design as well as her excellent anatomical drawing deserves superlatives. Probably the best thing that can be said is that she is not imitating Walt Disney but has developed a unique set of characters of her own. Her work will undoubtedly be seen in children's books when she is 'discovered'."

ELIZA PRISK, MARY MURDOCH PASS AWAY

Deaths during the weekend included Mrs. Eliza Prisk, 93, longtime resident of Grass Valley, Mrs. Mary Murdoch, 94, of Smartville and Geo. Clarence White, 48, former Grass Valley resident who died in San Francisco.

The funeral for Mrs. Prisk, a native of Cornwall and well known for her concert singing in Nevada City and Grass Valley, will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the Hooper-Weaver Mortuary in Grass Valley.

Final rites for Mrs. Murdoch will be held tomorrow afternoon at Smartville.

The funeral for White will be conducted at the N. Gray and Company Chapel in San Francisco.

NEW TRIAL IN LIQUOR CASE IS DENIED

Superior Judge George L. Jones overruled the order of the Nevada Township Justice Court in granting Mrs. Maurice Packer, who with her husband operates the Bottle Shop here, a new trial on charges of selling liquor to a minor.

Mrs. Packer was found guilty by Justice of the Peace George Gildersleeve several weeks ago but was granted a new trial the following day on the ground the prosecution failed to introduce evidence proving the intoxicating quality of the liquor Mrs. Packer purportedly sold to the minor.

The case now goes back to the justice court and it is probable Mrs. Packer will be sentenced this week by Justice Gildersleeve.

The youth to which Mrs. Packer was found guilty of selling the liquor was convicted of a charge of purchasing liquor while still a minor and was given a jail sentence here.

The state board of equalization suspended the liquor license of the Bottle Shop here for thirty days.

Joyce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Arbogast and the youngest of five sisters to be graduated from the Blue Tent School.

Following the program, refreshments were served.

The couple have been making their home in Berkeley, where the bridegroom is studying for his commission as an ensign in the United States Navy.

Restrictions Regarding Lake Fishing Released By NID

The Nevada Irrigation District has released the following for publication regarding the closure of lakes to boat fishing:

"Following conferences with the Adjutant General's office at Sacramento and following the general policy which has been established by the governor of California with respect to protection of utilities and other installations vital to the war effort, Nevada Irrigation District wishes to notify the public that from and after this date no boating will be allowed on Lake Bowman or French Lake and that notices will be posted around the district's major works restricting the general public from entry to certain areas. Fishing from the shores of Bowman and French Lake is not prohibited except within restricted areas."

In Miners Hospital—

Dick Fischer, former Nevada City resident who has been residing in Pinole with a sister, was brought to the Miners Hospital here for medical treatment. He was accompjanied by his sister, Mrs. Emma Asshenfelt.

Eppersons Visit Here—

Mrs. Clay Epperson and son, Clay Jr., of Bakersfield arrived here several days ago to visit with Mrs. Epperson's mother, Mrs. Ida Guenther and other relatives.

Carelessness Causes Five Fires In Tahoe National Forest Area

Assistant Supervisor Marc Edmonds of the Tahoe National Forest states that the number of fires caused by carelessness on the part of forest users is increasing daily. To date the Tahoe has had eight fires, five of which have been traced to careless smoking. Edwonds has issued instructions to all forest service field men to enforce all forest and fire regulations in compliance with the recent forest closures issued by Supervisor Guerdon Ellis. These closures prohibit the use of campfires unless they comply with regulations outlined on the campfire permit and limit smoking to main traveled roads, campgrounds and other posted areas. Edmonds advises all forest users that forest defense is a very vital part of our national defense effort and urges that they do all in their power to prevent the recurrence of fires of this type.

Many Favorite Spots Now Available

Forest Engineer Gerald Mitchell of the Tahoe Nationtl Forest states that all forest roads are open to travel by fishermen with the exception of the Fordyce and Grouse Ridge roads in the Big Bend disrict. It is not expected that the Fordyce Lake road will be opened for travel until July 10, while the Grouse Ridge Road is blocked by snow three miles from the lookout. According to Mitchell, fishing is considered good with the exception of some of the creeks in the high country that are running full. Mitchell further states that bait fishing with salmon eggs seems good in the creeks and trawling with a spinner in the larger lakes is popular.

EAT NUTRITIONAL FOOD

The good old Yankee custom of putting up food for the winter is being practised throughout the land this summer. No doubt you too, will be filling pantry and cooler shelves while orchard and field crops are plentiful.

For fruits and berries the shortage of sugar is not too serious a check. Some berries can be put up in natural juices without sugar. Or you can stretch your sugar allotment by the use of honey for sweetening. Jams and jellies or syrup for fruit can be made with all honey or half honey and sugar.

For vegetables do not trust old methods for cold or hot pack. Seek the latest and safest methods from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, your State Extension Service or this company's home economists. It is wasteful and dangerous to can vegetables by improper methods. Food is a munition of war. Buy it right. Cook it right. Can it right.
